

Multiplicative Inverses

Austin Farrar

March 25, 2019

A simple way of figuring out which numbers have a multiplicative inverse is finding out which numbers have a Greatest Common Divisor of 1. For example, in  $Z_7$  7 and 4 are multiplicative inverses since their GCD is 1.